

Teens Who READ!

The Hackettstown Public Library is looking for eighth grade and high school students to join the volunteer Teen Advisory Board.

If you enjoy reading and want to:

- Earn Community Service Hours
- Add to your résumé
- Have an impressive entry on your college applications
- Make your public library more “teen friendly”
- Choose what books, DVDs and music the library will purchase
- Voice your opinions
- Discuss the latest in teen books, magazines, movies and music
- Plan the next BIG teen event at the library

Fill out the attached application and bring it to the library.

What is involved? Board members will attend periodic board meetings at the public library; 4 – 8 meetings in a calendar year. Members will provide feedback to library staff on purchases and programs for teens and tweens.

Want to know more? Give a call to the Hackettstown Free Public Library at 852-4936 or by email to kreed@hackettstownlibrary.org.
